

A FESTIVAL OF FAITH AND FOOTBALL: AUGUSTINIANS CROWNED CHAMPIONS IN INAUGURAL RELIGIOUS EASTER TOURNAMENT 2026.

The first-ever Religious Easter Tournament 2026, proudly organised by the Immaculate Easter Cup in collaboration with the Association of Religious Formators of Kenya (ARFK), brought together six formation communities in a vibrant celebration of unity, fraternity, and healthy competition at Marist Football Field. Officially kicked off on Monday, 23rd February 2026 at 3:00 PM, the event was launched on behalf of His Grace Most Rev. Philip Arnold Anyolo, Archbishop of Nairobi, who was represented by Very Rev. Dr. John Martin Owor, Vicar for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life (ICL/SAL) in the Archdiocese of Nairobi. Under the theme "Faith, Fellowship, Football," the tournament featured spirited encounters among the Augustinian, Claretian, Redemptorist, Dominican, Cleric Minor, and Don Orione formation communities, all displaying remarkable teamwork, discipline, and fraternity. After thrilling matches, the Augustinian Community emerged champions, followed by the Redemptorists in second place and Don Orione Community in third position. Medals, trophies, and certificates were awarded to the winning and participating teams, while the cash prizes of KES 150,000, 75,000, and 50,000 respectively are set to be issued at a later date. The event was widely celebrated as a groundbreaking initiative fostering unity, wellness, and joyful interaction among religious in formation, strengthening bonds of fraternity through sport and shared vocation.
