

FORMATION COMMISSION EQUIPS RELIGIOUS FORMATORS ON SOUND INVESTMENT OPTIONS FOR SUSTAINABLE FORMATION AND COMMUNITY LIFE.

The Formation Commission of the Religious Superiors Conference of Kenya (RSCK) chaired by Rev. Fr Benedict Musaasizi(OP), successfully held an online investment talk titled "Investment Options for Religious" on Monday, 9th February 2026, from 7:00-8:00 pm EAT. The session brought together religious men and women to be equipped with practical knowledge on prudent financial management in today's economic context, emphasizing the importance of sound investment for the sustainability of congregations. Key presentations focused on investment opportunities within Kenya's money markets, including Treasury Bills, Treasury Bonds, Money Market Funds, and fixed deposits, as well as the establishment and management of endowment funds for congregations and institutions. The talk also highlighted strategic planning for the long-term welfare and upkeep of religious communities, formation houses, and apostolic works, underscoring financial stewardship as an integral dimension of religious mission and responsibility.
